

Aug 4, 2014, 4:55pm EDT | UPDATED: Aug 4, 2014, 5:10pm EDT

New tenants signed at Harris Corners Corporate Park

Will Boye
Senior Staff Writer-
Charlotte Business Journal
Email | Twitter | Google+

Two new tenants have signed leases at Harris Corners Corporate Park, and three existing tenants have renewed their leases at the three-building park in north Charlotte.

IFM Efactor Inc., a company that specializes in automation technology, signed a lease for 2,285 square feet, and staffing firm Computernet Inc. signed a lease for 7,743 square feet, according to New Boston Fund Inc., the real estate investment firm that purchased the three-building park in 2011.

Griffith Engineering and INDS Holdings signed renewals for 1,786 and 10,953 square feet, respectively, while Quint Events expanded its space at the park to 3,738 square feet.

Harris Corner is at the Interstate 77 interchange at W.T. Harris Boulevard. The development totals 361,144 square feet and consists of two five-story buildings and one four-story building.

+ Enlarge Photo

Harris Corners Corporate Park consists of three office buildings totaling 361,144 square feet.

IFM Efector was represented by Christopher Fleeger of Morrow Hill and Ross Howard at Jones Lang LaSalle. Griffith was represented by Scott Wilson of Childress Klein Properties, and INDS Holdings was represented by Bryan White at JLL.

Charles Jonas and Stephen Woodard of JLL represented New Boston.