

High-Profile Blog

ARTICLES AND COMMENTARY FROM HIGH-PROFILE.COM

New Boston Fund Promotes Bustard

October 7, 2013

Boston – New Boston Fund, Inc., a private equity real estate investment, development and management firm, recently announced today that Jennifer Bustard has been promoted to Vice President of Investor Relations.

In her new role, Bustard is now responsible for managing client accounts on behalf of New Boston Fund, including all daily interaction with investors. She handles complex inquiries regarding fund performance as well as tax reporting. Bustard is also in charge of generating content and messaging for annual and ad hoc investor reports, as well as due diligence reporting. Bustard previously served as Assistant Vice President of Investor Relations.

“Jennifer and her team are constantly well-informed and up to date on client portfolios, and are incredibly responsible about keeping investors in the know on the performance of our funds,” said Tim Medlock, President at New Boston Fund.

Prior to joining New Boston Fund in 2007, Bustard spent nine years in various capacities at Fidelity Investments. Most recently, she served as the Director of Sales for the Pyramis Global Advisors business unit where she reported and analyzed weekly, as well as monthly flows and assets of the organization, and tracked pipeline activity and new client commitments. Bustard also spent nearly four years working for Starwood Hotels as a Corporate Auditor and Analyst.

Bustard holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.